

Questions to Ask WHEN ADOPTING A PET

It is always a good idea to prepare a list of questions to ask when meeting a potential pet's owner for the first time. Think of questions that fit your needs and expectations for this new addition to your family. Try to avoid impulsive decisions because the pet is cute or happy to see you. Make sure all your questions and concerns are met before you agree to adopt.

SAMPLE QUESTIONS:

- Why are you rehoming your pet?

- Is this pet housebroken , crate trained, etc.?

- Does this pet have any behavior issues I need to be aware of?

- What type of energy does this pet have?

- Who is your veterinarian?

- Does this pet have any special needs?

- How does this pet do around children? Other animals?

- Can I take the pet for a wellness check at my veterinarian before I agree to adopt?

Remember these are only guidelines to help you think of your own needs & what questions you would like to ask!
